

Banks Freestanding & Mall

The background image is a top-down architectural rendering of a building's interior. It shows a large, open space with a light-colored, textured floor. In the upper right corner, there is a small, dark, circular object, possibly a trash can. A large, red, semi-transparent watermark with the word 'PREVIEW' in a bold, sans-serif font is oriented diagonally across the center of the image. The watermark is repeated twice, creating a sense of depth or a double exposure effect.
