

BATFOLK

BATFOLK IS A MONSTER SUPPLEMENT FOR 5E THAT PRESENTS BATFOLK AS DISCIPLINED NOCTURNAL AERIAL HUNTERS RATHER than simple beast-folk. These creatures dominate dark caverns, deep ravines, and night skies through superior hearing, coordinated flight, and precise echolocation. Instead of relying on brute strength, batfolk control the battlefield through mobility, darkness, and acoustic awareness.

The intent of this product is mechanical clarity and encounter variety without CR inflation. This ladder progresses from vulnerable colony young through increasingly specialized nocturnal roles, culminating in a colony matriarch capable of directing aerial assaults across the battlefield. The highest entry caps at CR 6 to remain settlement-scale threats rather than world-ending powers.

Batfolk encounters emphasize vertical positioning, darkness advantage, and coordinated strikes. They cling to cavern ceilings, strike from above, and use echolocation to track prey even in complete darkness. Removing their aerial advantage or disrupting their hearing can turn the tide of an encounter.

Cultural lore and motivations are intentionally minimal. Whether batfolk are mysterious cave dwellers, night-hunting forest spirits, or intelligent subterranean societies is left to the GM. Use these stat blocks as tools. What these nocturnal hunters ultimately want from the surface world is yours to decide.
