

SPECIES MUMMIES

Species Mummies is a monster supplement for 5e that presents mummies as preserved remains of many different peoples rather than a single desert-bound archetype. Instead of treating mummies as culturally identical undead, this book explores how burial practices and physical heritage shape the undead that rise from ancient tombs.

The intent of this product is mechanical clarity and encounter variety without CR inflation. Every creature in this supplement uses the standard SRD mummy framework—retaining Dreadful Glare, Rotting Fist, and the Mummy Rot curse—while modifying only size, movement, languages, and a single preserved racial trait. The result is a wide range of recognizable undead guardians that remain mechanically consistent with the original mummy design.

These mummies are not roaming conquerors or battlefield commanders. They are tomb guardians bound by funerary rites, lingering curses, and ancient burial traditions. Each variant reflects the body and environment it was preserved in: drowned temples, swamp shrines, labyrinth crypts, giant necropolises, and more.

Cultural lore is intentionally minimal. Whether these undead are the result of sacred preservation, necromantic catastrophe, forgotten burial cults, or divine punishment is left to the GM. Use these stat blocks as tools. Why these bodies were preserved—and why they still walk—is yours to decide.

Rune Memory. This mummy has advantage on saving throws against spells while inside a tomb, ruin, or warded structure.

Dreadful Glare. If the mummy sees a creature within 60 feet of it, it can force it to make a DC 11 Wisdom saving throw if the mummy isn't incapacitated. On a failed save, the target becomes frightened of the mummy until the end of the mummy's next turn. If the target fails the saving throw by 5 or more, it is also paralyzed for the same duration. A creature that succeeds on the saving throw is immune to this mummy's Dreadful Glare for the next 24 hours.

ACTIONS

Rotting Fist. Melee Weapon Attack: +4 to hit, reach 5 ft., one target. Hit: 7 (2d4 + 2) bludgeoning damage plus 10 (3d6) necrotic damage. If the target is a creature, it must succeed on a DC 12 Constitution saving throw or be cursed with mummy rot. The cursed target can't regain hit points, and its hit point maximum decreases by 10 (3d6) for every 24 hours that elapse. If the curse reduces the target's hit point maximum to 0, the target dies, and its body turns to dust. The curse lasts until removed by the remove curse spell or other magic.
