

SCORPIONFOLK

CORPIONFOLK IS A MONSTER SUPPLEMENT FOR 5E THAT PRESENTS A DESERT-ADAPTED INSECTOID LINEAGE BUILT AROUND ambush, venom, and relentless predatory pressure. Rather than functioning as simple beasts or mindless swarm creatures, scorpionfolk operate as territorial hunters with a clear social hierarchy and a battlefield doctrine centered on isolation, poison, and coordinated strikes.

The intent of this product is mechanical clarity and encounter variety without CR inflation. The ladder progresses from broodling through increasingly specialized desert predators, culminating in the Sand Matriarch at CR 6. These creatures are designed to dominate confined terrain, canyon routes, caves, and dune environments where their climbing ability, tremorsense, and ambush tactics allow them to control the battlefield.

Scorpionfolk encounters reward awareness and positioning. Parties that remain grouped and alert can repel them, but scattered adventurers quickly become prey. Use these stat blocks as flexible desert threats, subterranean predators, or guardians of ancient ruins buried beneath shifting sands.
