

TEMPLARS

TEMPLARS IS A MONSTER SUPPLEMENT FOR 5E THAT PRESENTS DISCIPLINED HOLY KNIGHTS AS AN ORGANIZED MARTIAL order rather than wandering champions. Instead of treating templars as solitary heroes or generic crusaders, this book focuses on a structured military brotherhood devoted to defending the faith, protecting sacred institutions, and enforcing religious authority through disciplined formations and unwavering loyalty.

The intent of this product is encounter clarity without individual power inflation. Each role represents a specific function within the order, from gate guards and patrol knights to banner bearers and battlefield commanders. Unlike many martial ladders that escalate through individual heroics, templars gain their true strength through coordination, positioning, and shared doctrine. Their abilities reinforce disciplined formations, making them far more dangerous when fighting together than when encountered alone.

The internal politics, doctrines, and ultimate loyalties of the order are intentionally left undefined. Some templars may serve a righteous faith protecting civilization from real threats, while others may act as enforcers of oppressive regimes or unquestioning servants of religious authority. These stat blocks are tools for the GM. Whether the templars represent noble defenders or terrifying instruments of faith is entirely up to the campaign.

Oathbound Resolve. The templar knight has advantage on saving throws against being frightened while within 10 feet of another templar.

Radiant Strikes. Once per turn when the templar knight hits with a melee weapon attack, the attack deals an extra 3 (1d6) radiant damage.

Longsword. Melee Weapon Attack: +5 to hit, reach 5 ft., one target. Hit: 7 (1d8 + 3) slashing damage.

Heavy Crossbow. Ranged Weapon Attack: +2 to hit, range 100/400 ft., one target. Hit: 5 (1d10) piercing damage.

- Templar knights fight in disciplined formations and rarely operate alone.
- They advance slowly behind shields and focus their attacks on enemies marked by inquisitors.
- A single knight is dangerous, but groups of knights become far more formidable.

INQUISITORS

INQUISITORS IS A MONSTER SUPPLEMENT FOR 5E THAT PRESENTS THE MACHINERY OF RELIGIOUS INVESTIGATION AND DOCTRINAL enforcement as a structured institution rather than a collection of generic villains. Instead of treating inquisitors as lone fanatics or roaming judges, this book explores an organized hierarchy dedicated to identifying heresy, suppressing dangerous magic, and enforcing ideological conformity through fear, investigation, and authority.

The intent of this product is focused encounter design without scale bloat. Each role represents a specific operational function within the institution, progressing from informants embedded in civilian life through increasingly powerful investigators and authorities capable of directing raids, trials, and large-scale crackdowns. The ladder culminates with the Grand Inquisitor, a regime-level authority capable of dominating entire regions through divine judgment and institutional power.

Cultural doctrine, theology, and the true motives of the Inquisition are intentionally left undefined. Whether the institution is righteous, corrupt, fearful, or tragically necessary is left entirely to the GM. These stat blocks are tools. The truth of the faith they enforce is yours to decide.

Mage Hunter. The witchfinder has advantage on saving throws against spells and other magical effects.

Arcane Sense. The witchfinder automatically knows when a creature within 30 feet casts a spell.

Spellbreaker Strike. When the witchfinder damages a creature that is concentrating on a spell, that creature has disadvantage on its concentration check.

ACTIONS

Multiattack. The witchfinder makes two weapon attacks.

Longsword. Melee Weapon Attack: +3 to hit, reach 5 ft., one target. Hit: 6 (1d8 + 1) slashing damage.

Crossbow. Ranged Weapon Attack: +4 to hit, range 80/320 ft., one target. Hit: 6 (1d8 + 2) piercing damage.

BONUS ACTIONS

Expose the Heretic (Recharge 5–6). The witchfinder points to a creature it can see within 60 feet that has cast a spell since the end of the witchfinder's last turn. The target must succeed on a DC 13 Wisdom saving throw or be revealed by radiant light for 1 minute. While revealed this way, the creature cannot benefit from invisibility and has disadvantage on Dexterity (Stealth) checks.

- Witchfinders accompany inquisitorial patrols when spellcasters are suspected.
- They focus on disrupting spellcasters and forcing them into the open.
- A witchfinder typically lets templars engage in melee while it identifies and exposes magical threats.

Authority of Judgment. Creatures of the high inquisitor's choice within 30 feet have disadvantage on saving throws against being frightened while they can see the high inquisitor.

Brand of Heresy. When the high inquisitor hits a creature with a weapon attack, it can brand the target for 1 hour. While branded, the creature sheds dim light in a 5-foot radius, cannot benefit from invisibility, and templars have advantage on attack rolls against it.

Spellcasting. The high inquisitor is a 10th-level spellcaster. Its spellcasting ability is Wisdom (spell save DC 16, +8 to hit with spell attacks). It requires no material components. The high inquisitor has the following spells prepared:

- Cantrips (at will): thaumaturgy
- 1st level (3 slots): command, detect magic
- 2nd level (3 slots): hold person, zone of truth
- 3rd level (2 slots): dispel magic, spirit guardians
- 4th level (1 slot): banishment

ACTIONS

Multiattack. The high inquisitor makes two weapon attacks.

Mace of Judgment. Melee Weapon Attack: +8 to hit, reach 5 ft., one target. Hit: 7 (1d6 + 4) bludgeoning damage plus 9 (2d8) radiant damage.

Light Crossbow. Ranged Weapon Attack: +6 to hit, range 80/320 ft., one target. Hit: 6 (1d8 + 2) piercing damage.

Pronounce Condemnation (Recharge 5–6). The high inquisitor targets one creature it can see within 60 feet that is branded by Brand of Heresy. The target must make a DC 16 Wisdom saving throw, taking 27 (6d8) radiant damage on a failed save, or half as much damage on a successful one.

REACTIONS

Defy the Heretic. When a creature the high inquisitor can see within 30 feet casts a spell, the high inquisitor forces that creature to make a DC 16 Constitution saving throw. On a failure, the spell is cast with disadvantage on any attack rolls and creatures have advantage on saving throws against it.

- High inquisitors command major investigations and preside over public trials and condemnations.
- They mark dangerous targets with Brand of Heresy so templars can overwhelm them.
- A high inquisitor typically operates with multiple templars and at least one witchfinder when confronting powerful spellcasters.
