

WASPFOLK

WASPFOLK IS A MONSTER SUPPLEMENT FOR 5E THAT PRESENTS A SINGLE-MINDED EXPANSIONIST SPECIES DRIVEN ENTIRELY by nest instinct and territorial dominance. Instead of portraying insectoid creatures as merely exotic humanoids, this book explores a biologically alien predator society built on resin nests, collective awareness, and lethal venom.

The intent of this product is mechanical clarity and encounter impact without unnecessary complexity. The ladder progresses from hatchling to queen, representing the escalating defensive and offensive roles within a resin nest hierarchy. Individually, Waspfolk are impulsive and low in independent reasoning. Within the influence of their nest and brood leaders, however, they become coordinated, deadly hunters capable of overwhelming intruders with speed and venom.

Cultural lore and long histories are intentionally minimal. Waspfolk are not diplomats, traders, or empire builders. They expand because instinct demands expansion. They attack because territory must be defended. Use these stat blocks as tools. Whether the nest is newly formed, ancient and sprawling, or an invasive threat to a settled region is for the GM to decide.

Challenge 3 (700 XP)

Proficiency Bonus +2

Nest Instinct. While within 60 ft. of a resin nest structure or within 30 ft. of at least three allied waspfolk, this waspfolk cannot be charmed and has advantage on its first attack each round.

If isolated (not within 60 ft. of a nest and not within 30 ft. of at least three allied waspfolk), its Intelligence becomes 4 and its Wisdom becomes 7. While isolated, it has disadvantage on Wisdom (Perception) checks and cannot use special abilities (can only attack) and cannot use skills.

Brood Sentinel. The venom guard has advantage on attack rolls against any creature within 15 ft. of a resin nest structure or cocoon.

Death Venom Rupture. When the venom guard is reduced to 0 hit points, its venom sac bursts. Each creature within 5 ft. must succeed on a DC 13 Constitution saving throw or take 10 (3d6) poison damage.

ACTIONS:

Multiattack. The venom guard makes two attacks: one Claw and one Sting.

Claw. Melee Weapon Attack: +5 to hit, reach 5 ft., one target. Hit: 7 (1d8 + 3) slashing damage.

Sting. Melee Weapon Attack: +5 to hit, reach 5 ft., one target. Hit: 10 (1d10 + 3) piercing damage plus 14 (4d6) poison damage. The target must succeed on a DC 13 Constitution saving throw or be poisoned for 1 minute. While poisoned in this way, the target's speed is reduced by 10 ft. The target may repeat the saving throw at the end of each of its turns, ending the effect on a success.'

- The venom guard positions itself between intruders and the brood.
- It focuses attacks on creatures threatening cocoons or nest structures.
- It fights aggressively while nest-linked and does not retreat.
- If isolated, it becomes less coordinated but remains territorial.
- It willingly dies in defense of the brood, maximizing Death Venom Rupture.

Challenge 10 (5,900 XP)

Proficiency Bonus +4

Legendary Resistance (3/Day). If the Sun Queen fails a saving throw, she can choose to succeed instead.

Nest Sovereign. The Sun Queen is always considered nest-linked. Allied waspfolk within 120 ft. of her are also considered nest-linked regardless of their position.

Venomous Aura. Any creature that starts its turn within 10 ft. of the Sun Queen must succeed on a DC 17 Constitution saving throw or take 10 (3d6) poison damage.

Death Venom Cataclysm. When the Sun Queen is reduced to 0 hit points, her venom sac detonates. Each creature within 20 ft. must succeed on a DC 17 Constitution saving throw or take 28 (8d6) poison damage, or half as much damage on a success.

ACTIONS:

Multiattack. The Sun Queen makes three attacks: one Claw and two Royal Sting attacks.

Claw. Melee Weapon Attack: +10 to hit, reach 10 ft., one target. Hit: 13 (2d6 + 6) slashing damage.

Royal Sting. Melee Weapon Attack: +10 to hit, reach 10 ft., one target. Hit: 17 (2d10 + 6) piercing damage plus 28 (8d6) poison damage. The target must succeed on a DC 17 Constitution saving throw or be poisoned for 1 minute. While poisoned in this way, the target is paralyzed. The target repeats the saving throw at the end of each of its turns, ending the effect on a success.

Brood Surge (Recharge 5–6). The Sun Queen releases a piercing vibration through the resin nest. Up to three destroyed waspfolk hatchlings within the nest re-form at full hit points in unoccupied spaces within 30 ft. of her.

LEGENDARY ACTIONS:

The Sun Queen can take 3 legendary actions, choosing from the options below. Only one legendary action option can be used at a time and only at the end of another creature's turn. The Sun Queen regains spent legendary actions at the start of her turn.

Wing Beat (1 Action). The Sun Queen moves up to half her flying speed without provoking opportunity attacks.

Sting (1 Action). The Sun Queen makes one Royal Sting attack.

Hive Frenzy (2 Actions). Allied waspfolk within 60 ft. can use their reactions to make one attack.

LAIR ACTIONS:

On initiative count 20 (losing initiative ties), the Sun Queen can take one of the following lair actions while within her resin nest:

Resin Collapse. A 15-ft.-radius section of resin ceiling collapses at a point the Queen can see within 60 ft. Creatures in the area must succeed on a DC 15 Dexterity saving throw or take 14 (4d6) bludgeoning damage and be knocked prone.

Sticky Resin Flood. A 20-ft. square area of floor within 60 ft. becomes coated in fresh resin until initiative count 20 on the next round. The area is difficult terrain, and creatures that start their turn there must succeed on a DC 15 Strength saving throw or have their speed reduced to 0 until the start of their next turn.

Venomous Mist. A cloud of toxic vapor fills a 20-ft.-radius sphere centered on a point within 60 ft. The area is lightly obscured until initiative count 20 on the next round. Creatures that start their turn in the cloud must succeed on a DC 15 Constitution saving throw or take 10 (3d6) poison damage.

- The Sun Queen remains central within the nest to maximize Nest Sovereign.
- She opens combat with Brood Surge if brood numbers are low.
- She prioritizes paralyzing high-damage or spellcasting targets.
- She uses Wing Beat frequently to avoid being surrounded.
- Lair actions focus on battlefield control, separating intruders and restricting movement.
- She fights to the death in defense of the brood.

FUNGALFOLK

FUNGALFOLK IS A MONSTER SUPPLEMENT FOR 5E THAT PRESENTS A HIGHLY INTELLIGENT SPECIES OF MYCELIAL BEINGS WHO live in harmony with the natural world rather than dominating it. Instead of portraying mushroom creatures as strange monsters or mindless fungal hazards, this book explores a thoughtful, adaptive lineage connected through living networks beneath soil, stone, and root.

The intent of this product is mechanical clarity and encounter versatility without excessive complexity. The ladder progresses from young spore-born beings to ancient mycelial authorities, representing the natural growth of wisdom, influence, and ecological power within fungal societies. Fungalfolk rely on regeneration, shared awareness through living terrain, and subtle environmental control rather than direct aggression.

Cultural history and rigid political structures are intentionally minimal. Fungalfolk do not expand through conquest or empire. They grow where ecosystems allow them to thrive, forming patient communities that defend their groves only when necessary. Use these stat blocks as tools. Whether the fungalfolk are peaceful stewards, mysterious forest neighbors, or ancient guardians of forgotten wild places is for the GM to decide.

FUNGALFOLK ROSTER

Fungal Sporeling	0	Young mycelial being newly formed from the fungal network and beginning to sense the living world.
Fungal Grovekeeper	1	Protective steward of fungal groves who restrains intruders and stabilizes natural terrain.
Mycelial Envoy	3	Highly intelligent fungal diplomat capable of negotiation and subtle battlefield influence.
Verdant Symbiote	6	Durable fungal guardian whose body draws strength and regeneration from living earth.
Spore Sage	8	Ancient fungal thinker who guides allies and shapes combat through mycelial awareness.
Mycelial Sovereign	10	Great fungal authority capable of reshaping terrain and directing the collective will of the grove.

Mycelial Communion. While this fungalfolk is in contact with natural ground (soil, stone, wood, or plant matter), it has advantage on Intelligence checks and Wisdom (Perception) checks. If another fungalfolk is within 30 ft. and also in contact with natural ground, neither creature can be surprised.

Regenerative Growth. While standing on natural ground, the sage regains 12 hit points at the start of its turn.

ACTIONS:

Multiattack. The sage makes two Mycelial Touch attacks.

Mycelial Touch. Melee Weapon Attack: +5 to hit, reach 5 ft., one target. Hit: 11 (2d8 + 2) bludgeoning damage plus 14 (4d6) poison damage. The target must succeed on a DC 16 Constitution saving throw or be restrained by creeping fungal growth until the end of its next turn.

Spore Dominion (Recharge 5–6). The sage spreads bioluminescent spores in a 30-ft.-radius sphere centered on a point it can see within 60 ft. The area becomes lightly obscured and difficult terrain for hostile creatures until the end of the sage's next turn. Hostile creatures that start their turn in the area must succeed on a DC 16 Constitution saving throw or take 14 (4d6) poison damage.

REACTIONS:

Shared Mycelial Mind. When an allied fungalfolk within 30 ft. makes a saving throw, the sage can grant that ally advantage on the roll.

- The sage remains grounded to sustain Regenerative Growth.
- It opens combat with Spore Dominion to reshape the battlefield.
- It supports key allies using Shared Mycelial Mind.
- It restrains the most dangerous foe while fungal allies reposition.
- It prioritizes preservation of the grove over pursuit.

Mycelial Communion. While this fungalfolk is in contact with natural ground (soil, stone, wood, or plant matter), it has advantage on Intelligence checks and Wisdom (Perception) checks. If another fungalfolk is within 30 ft. and also in contact with natural ground, neither creature can be surprised.

Regenerative Growth. While standing on natural ground, the sovereign regains 15 hit points at the start of its turn.

Symbiotic Authority. The sovereign and allied fungalfolk within 60 ft. have advantage on saving throws against being charmed or frightened.

ACTIONS:

Multiattack. The sovereign makes two Mycelial Touch attacks.

Mycelial Touch. Melee Weapon Attack: +8 to hit, reach 10 ft., one target. Hit: 15 (2d10 + 4) bludgeoning damage plus 18 (5d6) poison damage. The target must succeed on a DC 17 Constitution saving throw or be restrained by rapid fungal overgrowth for 1 minute. The restrained target repeats the saving throw at the end of each of its turns, ending the effect on a success.

Spore Convergence (Recharge 5–6). The sovereign designates a point on natural ground it can see within 60 ft. A 30-ft.-radius area centered on that point becomes thick with glowing mycelium until the end of the sovereign's next turn. The area is difficult terrain for hostile creatures. Allied creatures regain 14 (4d6) hit points when they enter the area for the first time on a turn. Hostile creatures that start their turn there must succeed on a DC 17 Constitution saving throw or take 21 (6d6) poison damage.

LEGENDARY ACTIONS:

The Mycelial Sovereign can take 3 legendary actions, choosing from the options below. Only one legendary action option can be used at a time and only at the end of another creature's turn. The sovereign regains spent legendary actions at the start of its turn.

Rooted Step (1 Action). The sovereign moves up to half its speed without provoking opportunity attacks while remaining in contact with natural ground.

Mycelial Touch (1 Action). The sovereign makes one Mycelial Touch attack.

Spore Shield (2 Actions). The sovereign grants itself or one allied creature within 60 ft. 15 temporary hit points.

LAIR ACTIONS:

On initiative count 20 (losing initiative ties), the sovereign can take one of the following lair actions while in its grove or fungal domain:

Living Ground. A 20-ft. square area of ground the sovereign can see within 60 ft. sprouts dense fungal growth. The area becomes difficult terrain. Allied creatures in the area gain half cover until initiative count 20 on the next round.

Pacifying Miasma. A calming spore cloud fills a 20-ft.-radius sphere centered on a point within 60 ft. Hostile creatures in the area must succeed on a DC 16 Wisdom saving throw or be charmed until initiative count 20 on the next round. A creature charmed in this way cannot take reactions.

Regrowth Surge. The sovereign channels restorative energy through the mycelial network. The sovereign and up to three allied fungalfolk within 60 ft. regain 20 hit points.

- The sovereign remains grounded to sustain Regenerative Growth.
- It reshapes the battlefield early with Spore Convergence.
- It uses legendary actions to maintain pressure and protect key allies.
- Lair actions focus on control, protection, and attrition.
- It prioritizes preservation of the fungal domain over pursuit.
