About these maps

There are 8 different kinds of railcars, two roof maps, and seven track maps.

The roof maps are designed to be to roof of any of the railcars, and the track maps can be used independently, or with railcars overlaid on the tracks to provide the environment for the railcar.

Sitting Luxury-Car

Comfortable booths for wealthy riders to socialize or isolate during the voyage.

Sleeper Luxury-Car

For long trips single and double rooms are available for sleeping and privacy. Each with a private bathroom.

Smoking Room Luxury-Car

Relax with a cigar and brandy and rub elbows with others in the elite class.

Dining Luxury-Car

The gastronomic experience on a luxury train was first class with world class chefs serving up high class meals.

Kitchen Luxury-Car

Of course, first-class meals require a first-class kitchen as well as office for the chef, beds for the cooks and servers, and plenty of storage.

Luggage Luxury-Car

There is no shortage of luggage with the upperclass.

Blank Luxury-Car

For you to customize for your own needs.

Luxury-Car Roof

For any railcar.

Golden Age Steam Locomotive

A bucket car for holding the coal that would power the steam engine. Made of shiny steel and kept meticulously clean these were the pride of the rail company.

Golden Age Station Track

Luxury begins at the loading platform. Comfortable benches, clean toilets, and a ticket booth.
