

1920s EQUIPMENT CATALOG

Weapons

Ranged Weapons

Ranged Weapon	Cost	Weight	Description
Colt M1911 Pistol	$35	2 lb	Standard U.S. military sidearm. Semi-automatic, 7-round magazine, uses .45 ACP.
Webley Revolver	$28	2.5 lb	British .455 service revolver. Top-break design with 6-round cylinder, uses .455 Webley.
Smith & Wesson Model 10	$30	2.2 lb	Popular police revolver. Double-action with 6-round cylinder, uses .38 Special.
FN Browning 1910	$25	1.5 lb	Compact semi-auto pistol. 6 or 7-round magazine depending on caliber, uses .32 ACP or .380.
Remington Model 10 Shotgun	$45	7.5 lb	Pump-action 12-gauge shotgun. 5+1 tube magazine, uses 12 Gauge Shells.
Winchester Model 1897 Trench Gun	$55	8 lb	Slam-fire capable pump shotgun with bayonet lug. 5+1 tube magazine, uses 12 Gauge Shells.
Thompson SMG (M1921)	$225	11 lb	Iconic .45 ACP submachine gun. 20 or 50-round magazine (box or drum), uses .45 ACP.
Winchester Model 1894 Rifle	$40	6.5 lb	Lever-action rifle. 6+1 tubular magazine, uses .30-30 ammo. Common in rural areas.
Springfield M1903 Rifle	$60	8.5 lb	Bolt-action U.S. military rifle. 5-round internal magazine, uses .30-06. Highly accurate.
Mauser C96 "Broomhandle"	$40	3.5 lb	Distinctive semi-auto pistol. Fixed 10-round internal magazine, loaded with stripper clips. Uses 7.63mm Mauser.
Derringer Pistol	$10	1 lb	Tiny break-action pistol. Holds 2 shots, uses .41 Rimfire. Easily concealed.

Double-Barrel Shotgun	$35	7 lb	Break-action 12-gauge shotgun. 2-shot capacity, uses 12 Gauge Shells.
Pocket Revolver	$18	1.5 lb	Snub-nose revolver. 5-round cylinder, uses .32 S&W. Easy to conceal.

Melee Weapons

Melee Weapon	Cost	Weight	Description
Folding Pocket Knife	$2	0.5 lb	Small, easily concealed blade. Common utility or backup weapon.
Straight Razor	$3	0.4 lb	Sharp folding razor used for shaving. Favored by some gangsters for close combat.
Switchblade	$5	0.7 lb	Concealable automatic knife. Illegal in many jurisdictions.
Trench Knife	$10	1 lb	WWI-era combat knife with knuckle guard. Still carried by veterans and gangsters.
Blackjack (Sap)	$4	1 lb	Leather-covered lead weight. Designed to knock someone out without killing.
Lead Pipe	$1	3 lb	Improvised blunt weapon. Commonly found in industrial or urban settings.
Crowbar	$3	5 lb	Useful tool that doubles as a brutal bludgeon.
Fireplace Poker	$2	4 lb	Weighted iron rod. Common in homes; useful in a pinch.
Baseball Bat (Wood)	$5	3.5 lb	Standard American bat. Widely used as an improvised weapon.
Wrench (Heavy)	$3	4 lb	Industrial spanner. Can crush bone when swung.
Brass Knuckles	$6	1 lb	Slips over fingers to deliver bone-breaking punches. Often illegal.
Hatchet	$7	2.5 lb	One-handed axe used for woodcutting or emergencies.

Walking Cane (Weighted)	$10	2 lb	Fashionable and functional. Weighted tip for striking. Some contain concealed blades.
Bayonet (Detached)	$8	1.5 lb	Knife-blade from a military rifle. Often repurposed post-war.
Meat Cleaver	$4	2.5 lb	Heavy kitchen tool. Chops meat — or worse — with ease.

Ammunition

Ammunition	Cost (per 10)	Weight	Description
.22 Long Rifle Ammo	$0.30	0.25 lb	Small caliber rimfire rounds used for sport shooting or varmint control. Low power.
.32 ACP Ammo	$0.50	0.3 lb	Compact semi-auto pistol round. Common in concealed carry guns like the FN 1910.
.38 Special Ammo	$0.70	0.4 lb	Widely used revolver round. Standard issue for many police departments.
.45 ACP Ammo	$1.00	0.5 lb	Powerful semi-auto pistol and SMG round. Standard for the Colt M1911 and Tommy Gun.
.455 Webley Ammo	$1.10	0.6 lb	British military revolver round. Large, heavy, and hard-hitting.
9mm Parabellum Ammo	$0.90	0.4 lb	Standard European pistol and SMG round. Used in Mauser C96 and rare submachine guns.
.30-30 Rifle Ammo	$1.20	0.8 lb	Common lever-action rifle cartridge. Balanced for hunting and rural defense.
.30-06 Rifle Ammo	$1.40	0.9 lb	Powerful bolt-action rifle round. Used in the Springfield M1903.
12-Gauge Shells (Buckshot)	$1.50	1 lb	Close-range devastation. Used in pump and break-action shotguns.
12-Gauge Shells (Slug)	$1.60	1 lb	Solid projectile for armor or door breaching.
.25 ACP Ammo	$0.40	0.25 lb	Very small pocket pistol round. Low power, but highly concealable.

Gear & Equipment

Containers

Containers	Cost	Weight	Description
Leather Satchel	$6	2 lb	Worn over the shoulder. Carries notebooks, maps, or a pistol. Popular with students, explorers, and messengers.
Canvas Rucksack	$10	3 lb	Durable, with drawstring top and flap. Used by hikers, soldiers, and laborers.
Briefcase (Leather)	$10	3 lb	Business-class case with latches. Holds papers, revolver, flask. Often seen in urban settings.
Doctor's Bag	$12	4 lb	Sturdy leather bag with clasp top. Carries tools, medicine, or other "specialty" gear.
Ammo Pouch	$3	1 lb	Belt-worn leather pouch with 6–12 cartridge loops.
Bandolier	$4	1.5 lb	Worn across the chest. Holds 20–40 rifle rounds.
Messenger Bag	$5	2.5 lb	Similar to satchel but more casual. Worn cross-body. Used by reporters or telegraph boys.
Coin Purse	$1	0.1 lb	Small leather pouch for coins and folded notes.
Utility Belt Pouch	$2	1 lb	Small canvas pouch for tools, ammo, or cigars.
Steel Lockbox (Small)	$8	6 lb	Lockable, strongbox for valuables. Often hidden in safes or desk drawers.
Trunk (Large)	$25	30 lb	Wooden or steel-trimmed travel trunk. Holds clothing, books, gear. Too heavy to carry easily.
Suitcase (Hard Shell)	$15	8 lb	Rigid leather suitcase with handle. Standard for travel or disguises.
Tobacco Tin	$0.50	0.2 lb	Small round tin, often repurposed for carrying tiny objects or fuses.

Tool Roll (Canvas)	$3	1.5 lb	Rolls up to carry hand tools safely. Common for mechanics or saboteurs.
Flask (Hidden Compartment)	$6	1 lb	Holds a pint of liquor — or a secret note or cyanide capsule.
Glass Vial Case	$4	1 lb	Padded wooden or leather case to hold fragile vials (medicine or poison). Holds 6–8 small vials.

Toolkits

Toolkits	Cost	Weight	Description
Mechanic's Toolkit	$10	10 lb	Set of wrenches, pliers, screwdrivers, and oil can. Used for repairing cars, machinery, or elevators.
Lockpicking Set	$12	1 lb	Includes tension wrenches, picks, and rakes. Illegal to carry without cause. Essential for burglars and spies.
Detective's Kit	$15	4 lb	Fingerprint powder, magnifying glass, tweezers, evidence bags, and a small notepad. Used for crime scene analysis.
Espionage Kit	$20	3 lb	Lockpicks, invisible ink, mini camera, coded notebook, and microfile reader. Highly restricted.
Exploration Kit	$18	8 lb	Compass, lantern, chalk, whistle, topographical maps, and climbing rope (25 ft). Used for ruins, caves, or field expeditions.
Field Medic Kit	$15	5 lb	Bandages, antiseptic, morphine ampoules, scissors, needle/thread. Portable version of a doctor's bag.
Archaeologist's Kit	$12	6 lb	Brushes, small trowel, calipers, specimen bags, charcoal pencils, and a field journal.
Saboteur's Toolkit	$25	6 lb	Wire cutters, pry bar, spool of fuse, hammer, and dynamite timer housing (no explosives included).

Journalist's Kit	$10	3 lb	Notepad, mechanical pencil, flash camera, shorthand guide, and press ID. Used to gather and report the news.
Engineer's Toolkit	$15	10 lb	Advanced set with soldering iron, gauges, voltmeter, wiring, and blueprints. Used for radio towers and security systems.
Chemistry Kit (Field)	$18	7 lb	Vials, test tubes, acids/bases, rubber gloves, droppers. Used for identifying poisons or experimenting.
Forgery Kit	$20	4 lb	Stamps, signature guides, parchment, inks, and pens. Used to create fake documents or IDs.
Police Officer's Toolkit	$14	6 lb	Includes handcuffs, whistle, flashlight, notepad, and ticket book. Some versions include a small revolver holster and sap. Used by beat cops or investigators.
Bootlegger's Toolkit	$22	7 lb	Contains false-bottom containers, bottle disguises, rubber tubing, mini siphon pump, and a hidden flask. May include a concealed map of backroad routes or tunnel entries.
Stage Magician's Kit	$16	4 lb	Flash paper, coin shells, handkerchiefs, collapsible cane, smoke pellets, and hidden compartments. Used for performance—also effective for deception or escapes.
Clergy Kit	$8	3 lb	Small crucifix, portable bible, rosary, flask of holy water, communion wafers, and a stole. Used by priests or ministers; may provide comfort, authority, or ritual protection.
Mortician's Kit	$14	6 lb	Embalming fluid, scalpels, bone shears, cotton plugs, sutures, gloves, and chalk pencil. Found in funeral homes or morgues; disturbing but medically useful.

Photographer's Kit	$18	7 lb	Large flashbulb camera, tripod, spare bulbs, film cartridges, and a cloth hood. Used for press or documentation, but bulky and slow.
Journalist's Kit	$10	3 lb	Notepad, mechanical pencil, press badge, pocket camera, and a hip flask. Everything a 1920s reporter needs to cover a scoop or sneak into restricted areas.
Safecracker's Kit	$25	3 lb	High-quality stethoscope, tuning forks, gloves, lubricant, soft cloths, and a collapsible mirror. Specialized gear for defeating mechanical safes quietly and efficiently.

Tools

Tools	Cost	Weight	Description
Adjustable Wrench	$2	2 lb	Versatile tool for tightening bolts or whacking noses. Common in garages and train yards.
Wire Cutters	$2	1 lb	Used to cut fencing, electrical wire, or phone lines. Favored by saboteurs and electricians alike.
Screwdriver (Flathead)	$0.75	0.5 lb	Basic hand tool. Found in nearly every toolkit or drawer.
Sledgehammer	$6	10 lb	Heavy two-handed hammer. Used for demolition, breaking locks, or labor strikes.
Claw Hammer	$2	3 lb	Standard carpenter's hammer with nail-puller. Also a popular weapon of opportunity.
Crowbar	$3	5 lb	Useful tool that doubles as a brutal bludgeon.
Hand Drill (Manual)	$4	3 lb	Crank-operated drill. Used in construction or for making holes in safe casings.

Flashlight	$4	2 lb	Handheld torch. Useful for searching or signaling. Requires D-cell batteries.
Lantern (Kerosene)	$3	4 lb	Glass and tin lantern with wick. Brighter and more reliable in the long run, but flammable.
Trowel (Small)	$1	1 lb	Triangular-bladed tool used by archaeologists or gravediggers.
Oil Can	$1	1 lb	Used to lubricate gears, locks, and hinges. Essential for machinery or stealth entries.
Measuring Tape (Cloth)	$0.50	0.2 lb	Flexible tape for tailoring, forensics, or sneaking into tight specs.
Brush Set (Detailing)	$2	0.5 lb	Soft-bristled brushes for cleaning artifacts, fingerprints, or relics. Common in detective or archaeology kits.
Padlock (with Key)	$1.50	1.5 lb	Brass or iron lock. Useful for securing trunks, doors, or crates.
Whistle (Metal)	$0.50	0.2 lb	Standard-issue police whistle. Used to alert or coordinate.
Compass (Pocket)	$2	0.3 lb	Directional compass with lid.
Rope (25 ft Hemp)	$3	5 lb	Thick utility rope. Good for climbing, tying down, or escaping.
Pry Tool (Slim Jim)	$3	1 lb	Flat metal strip used to open car doors or windows. Favored by car thieves.

Medical Supplies

Medical Supplies	Cost	Weight	Description
Bandage Roll (Cotton)	$0.25	0.2 lb	Used to wrap wounds, stop bleeding, or splint limbs. Often carried in multiples.
Antiseptic (Bottle)	$1.00	1 lb	Alcohol-based disinfectant. Cleans wounds and prevents infection. Burns on application.
Morphine Ampoule	$2.00	0.1 lb	Strong painkiller in glass vial. Highly addictive and often regulated.

Tourniquet (Cloth)	$0.50	0.3 lb	Used to stop major bleeding in limbs. Quick to apply in emergencies.
Thermometer (Glass)	$0.75	0.1 lb	Mercury-based, fragile. Used to detect fever or hypothermia.
Scalpel (Sterile)	$1.50	0.2 lb	Sharp surgical blade. Used for precise cutting or grim improvisation.
Needle & Thread (Sterile)	$0.50	0.1 lb	Used to stitch deep wounds or close gashes. Hurts like hell.
Medical Gloves (Pair)	$0.25	0.1 lb	Rubber or cotton gloves. Prevents contamination. Disposable.
Stethoscope	$4.00	1.5 lb	Used to listen to heart and lungs. Symbol of a trained physician.
Surgical Mask	$0.20	0.05 lb	Cotton or gauze face covering. Reduces spread of illness.
Splint Kit (Wood/Cloth)	$1.25	1.5 lb	Used to immobilize broken bones. Includes straps and wooden supports.
Field Dressing (Military)	$1.00	0.5 lb	Compact combat wound dressing. Contains gauze, tape, and antiseptic pad.
Smelling Salts	$0.60	0.1 lb	Ammonia-based capsule. Used to revive the unconscious or shaken.
Eye Wash Bottle	$0.75	0.8 lb	Squeeze bottle of saline. Rinses eyes or chemical splashes.
Tincture of Laudanum	$1.50	0.5 lb	Alcohol + opium solution. Used as sedative, painkiller, or tranquilizer. Often abused.
Medical Chart Pad	$0.30	0.3 lb	Blank patient records. Could be used for falsified documents or clues.

Camping Gear

Camping Gear	Cost	Weight	Description
Bedroll (Canvas/Fleece)	$3	6 lb	Rolled-up sleeping mat with wool liner. Provides warmth and basic shelter. Can be strapped to a pack.