Ground

The front door (west) is the entrance and exit for all prisoners. They visit the warden's office, then get cleaned and shaved before proceeding to their new home. Here is also the kitchen and the delivery/storage room. There are no windows on this floor.

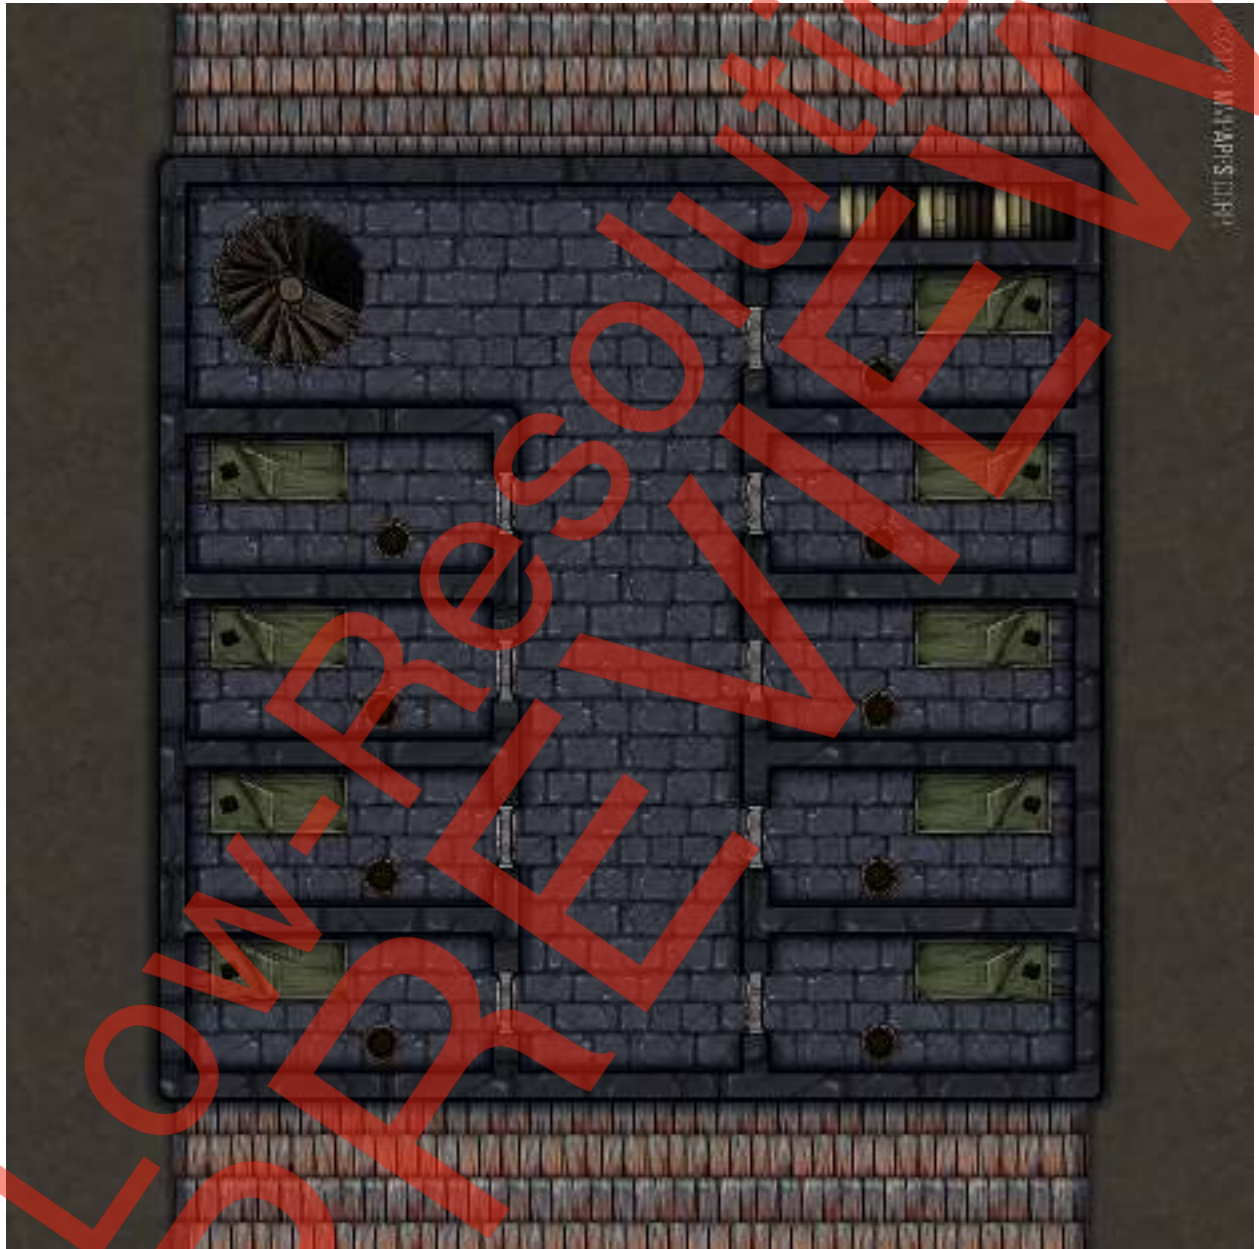

Dungeon

Various racks and shackles as well as an interrogation room and rack.

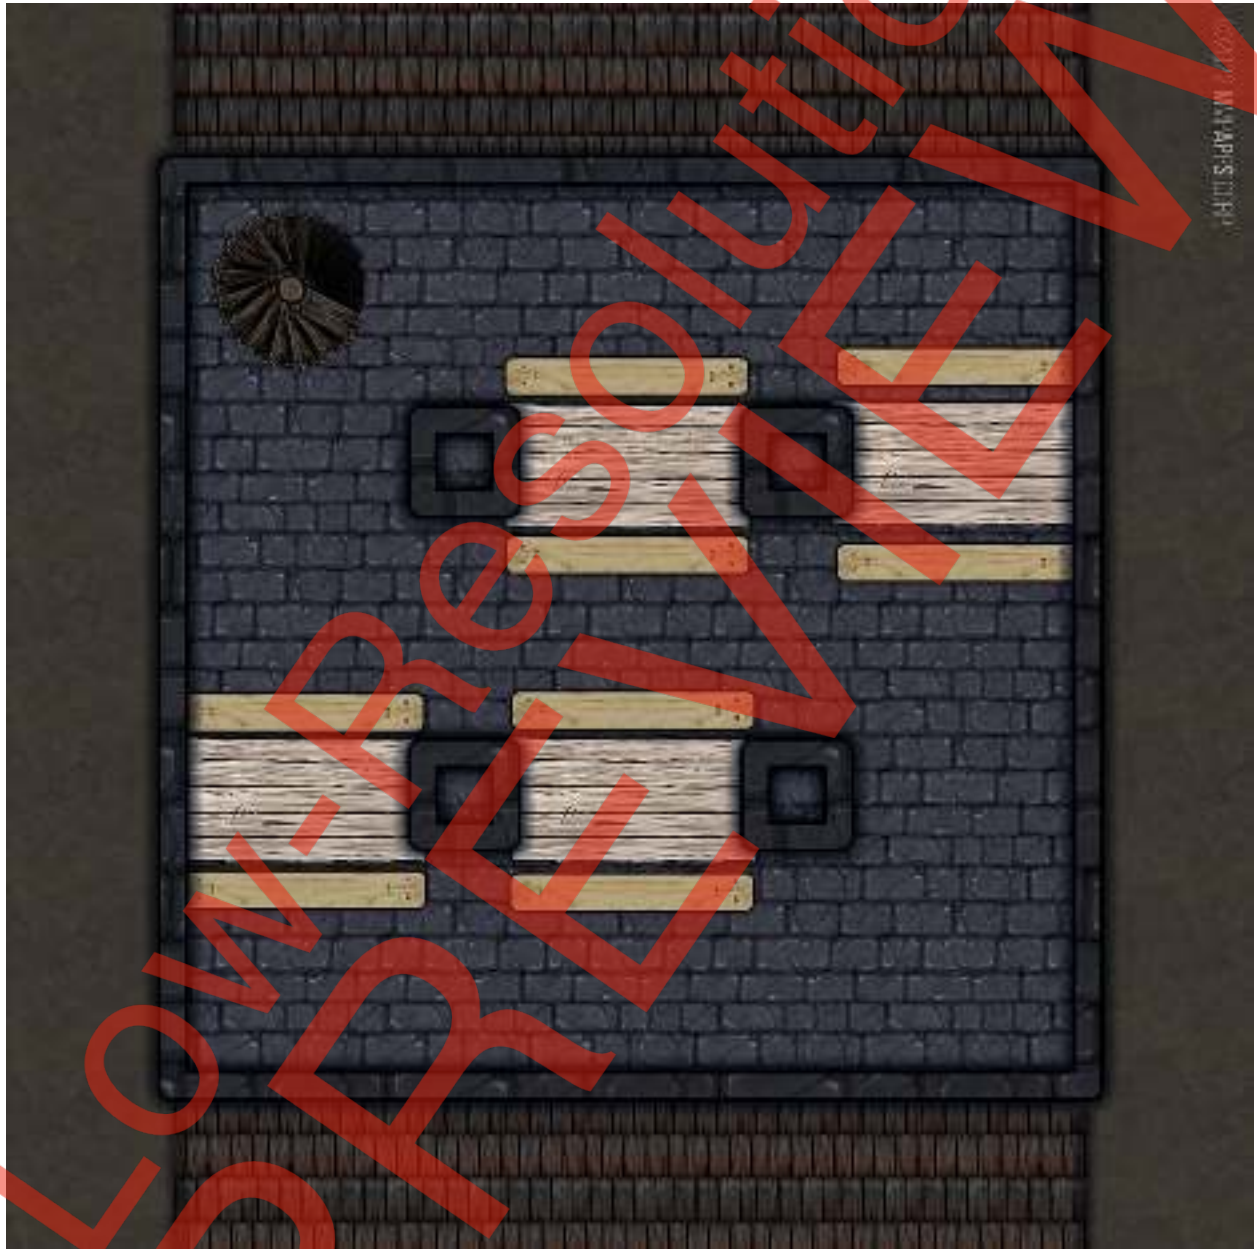

First Floor

Solitary confinement cells reserved for punishment or to hold the worst of the prisoners, or those who make daily “trips” to the dungeon. There are no windows on this floor.

Second Floor

As reward for good behaviour some of the prisoners are allowed to eat and socialize outside their cell for a few hours a day. There are no windows on this floor.

Cells

Typical holding cells. You can have as many floors of these as needed.

Common Cell

Prisoners need to pay for their lodging. Those who cannot afford end up in undesirable large commons rooms. Guards do not enter. Food, water, and fresh waste buckets are left in the buffer room. You can have as many floors of these as needed.

Teleportation Circle

Hidden in the most unlikely of places a secret teleportation circles is locked in a lonely cell.

Luxury Cells

For those who can afford it, luxury cells are available on the topmost floors. They even have a small fireplace for warmth.
